Inferno (Hardback)

By Dante Alighieri

Worth Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The poem begins on the day before Good Friday in the year 1300, when the narrator, Dante himself, and Virgil begin their journey through the underworld, by passing through the very gates of Hell, which bear the inscription: All hope abandon, ye who enter here. A horrendous journey follows until having toured all the departments of Hell they return to earth on Easter Sunday. In the second and third volumes of the Divine Comedy Beatrice takes over as a guide from Virgil because he was a pagan so could not enter Paradise. In real life Beatrice was Dante's unrequited love. He spoke to her just once throughout the thirteen years of his obsessional fantasy affair. She died, aged only twenty-four, and Dante was devastated with grief. He remained devoted to the memory of Beatrice for the rest of his life and she was the principal inspiration for all his poetical work.

Reviews

I actually started looking over this publication. It really is really interesting through studying period. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Good electronic book and valuable one. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50 percent in the pdf. You won't really feel monotony at any moment of your time (that's what catalogues are for concerning when you ask me).
