Who knows where one night of passion might lead Nonnie Crawford's disastrous marriage is over. The divorce papers are signed and she's ready to begin a new life. Out celebrating with friends, she attracts the notice of a dark-eyed stranger. His smile is an invitation, a dare. She yields to her desire and when he seduces her in a back hallway of the bar, she experiences the most sensual moment of her life. She craves more of him, but he leaves without telling her his name. Our kind will always find one another, is all he says before claiming one last kiss. Disturbed by her unexpected submission to his demands, Nonnie tries to forget the man she dubs The Businessman. Her memories prove difficult to shake and she wonders what he meant when he said our kind. She decides to seek him out. Her search eventually takes her to a BDSM club. Nervous in the unfamiliar scene, she meets Michael Weston, a sexy charmer who is keen to soothe her apprehensions . . . and to seize the...
