Estratto: .they weep thensight away. He will not deny himself. He has taken his stand in the midst of humanity, and his proclamation is, If any man thirst, let him come unto me. He that asks Christ to give him a white stone with a name written in it known to the recipient only, promising as a return for such a gift to believe upon the Saviour, asks and promises in vain. This stone cannot possibly be given except to faith. It is faith alone that can discern either the stone or the name written therein. It is not, Take and believe, but, Believing, take. The believer comes to Christ because he recognises his love to sinners, and knows himself to be one of these sinners. Afterward, it may be, he learns that, having been drawn of the...
